

THE MADISON FLUTE CLUB WISCONSIN FLUTE FESTIVAL

APRIL 18, 2009

PYLE CONFERENCE CENTER
702 LANGDON STREET
MADISON, WI 53706

The University of Wisconsin-Madison Flute Studio and Madison Flute Club are pleased to present the 6th annual Wisconsin Flute Festival, which will take place on April 18, 2009 at the UW-Madison Pyle Conference Center, 702 Langdon Street.

This year's festival features Rhonda Larson, professor Caen Thomason-Redus of UW-Milwaukee, Stephanie Jutt and many other noted flutists presenting master classes, flute choir reading sessions, clinics and classes throughout the day. The UW-Madison Flute Studio will present a recital and the festival will close with a headliner concert at 7:30 pm by Rhonda Larson at the historic First Unitarian Society.

The festival will interest students, amateurs, and professional flutists. This year's High School Competition offers a $250 prize. The Master Class competition finalists will have the opportunity to play for Grammy Award-winning and Pearl flutist, Rhonda Larson. The Exhibitor/vendor area will feature fine flutes, music, and flute-related items. Special thanks to sponsor Stephanie Jutt, the Dane County Cultural Arts Commission, Pearl Flutes, university flute professors, other flute teachers, and many others for making this exciting flute event possible!

Please share this Festival information with your students, co-workers and musician friends. For more application forms, updated schedule, and contact information is enclosed or visit our website at: <http://www.madisonfluteclub.org>.

You may also wish to support Madison Flute Club with a tax-deductible $25 donation – this membership supports area educational flute activities and provides members with event networking and referral opportunities through links to our www.madisonfluteclub.org website.

We look forward to seeing you at the festival!

Sincerely,

WI Flute Festival Program Committee
