

Broaden your knowledge about the incredible world of flutes lower than the concert C flute!

Apply for the
Peter Sheridan Low Flutes Opportunity Award

For middle, high school, and collegiate flutists in Wisconsin

$500 award offered

Award may be applied to instrumental rental, lessons, music, performance compositions or other activities that promote & educate on the low flutes

Alto • Bass • Contrabass • Subcontrabass • Hyperbass

Peter Sheridan, an internationally renowned flutist specializing on low flutes, has pushed the boundaries of “how low you can go” with the commission of the world’s first fully chromatic hyperbass flute in 2010. His dedication to commissioning and performing new music on the low flutes has greatly increased the repertoire of music and his compelling performances have stimulated growing interest in the range of sounds and abilities of low flutes.

Application deadline extended! Due by:

Monday, January 16, 2017

Visit madisonfluteclub.org for application